A Squash and a Squeeze by Julia Donaldson translated by Joan Tapley and Marianne Sargent

A little old lady lived all by herself
With a table and chairs and jug on the shelf.

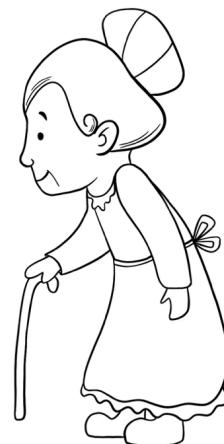

A wise old man heard her grumble and grouse,
“There’s not enough room in my house.
Wise old man, won’t you help me please?
My house is a squash and a squeeze.”

“Take in your hen,” said the wise old man.
“Take in my hen, what a curious plan.”

The little old lady cried, “What shall I do?
It was poky for one and it’s tiny for two.
My house is a squash and a squeeze.”

And she said,
“Wise old man, won’t you help me please?
My house is a squash and a squeeze.”

“Take in your cow,” said the wise old man.
“Take in my cow, what a curious plan.”

La bouonnefemme criyit, "Bouôn, enfin!
Ch'tait digot pouor quat', i' n'y'a pas d'un pouor chîn.
Ma maison est crêpie et squouîzie."

Et ou dit,
"S'i' vos pliaît sage vièr homme, pouv'-ous m'adîgi?
Ma maison est crêpie et squouîzie."

Lé sage vièr homme lì dit, "Mettez-les touos d'houors."

Don oulle ouvrit la f'nêtre et fit la poule s'envoler.

Ou pouffit et bouffit et ou poussit hors la vaque.

"Mèrcie pouor vot' aîgue, chièr homme, tchi soulagement.
I' y'a hardi d'un siez mé."

Et achteu oulle est plieine dé dans'sie et gib'thie.
Ch'n'est pon crêpi, ch'n'est pon squouîzi.

Oui, oulle est plieine dé dans'sie et gib'thie.
Ch'n'est pon crêpi ou squouîzi.

The little old lady cried, "Heavens alive!
It was teeny for four and it's weeny for five.
My house is a squash and a squeeze."

And she said,
"Wise old man, won't you help me please?
My house is a squash and a squeeze."

"Take them all out," said the wise old man.

So she opened the window and out flew the hen.

She huffed and she puffed and she pushed out the cow.

"Thank you, old man, for the work you have done.
There's plenty of room in my house."

And now she's full of frolics and fiddle-de-dees.
It isn't a squash and it isn't a squeeze.

Yes, she's full of frolics and fiddle-de-dees.
It isn't a squash or a squeeze.
